Proposal That Mr. Dole Go On to Washington

Bovernment Calls in Advisors -Debate of Two Hours - Arguments-Advices from States.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

Shall the weight of the personal presence of Sanford B. Dole be added to the pressure on behalf of annexation as it is being exerted by the emissaries and friends of this country at Washington?

This is the question of the hour with the Administration and its immediate advisors.

The same project has been debated before. It was considered in 1893 and during the following year. There has been very serious thought of it several times.

A conference was held Tuesday. It was known the day before that there was to be a gathering for exchange of views on the one important local topic. At 3 in the afternoon the meeting was called to order in the room of the President in the Executive Building. Mr. Dole was not in attendance. Among those who had been invited were:

Chief Justice Judd, Gen. A. S. Hart well, John Ena, F. J. Lowrle, Henry Waterhouse, Wm. C. Wilder, Col. W. F. Allen, W. A. Kinney, P. C. Jones, Jas. A. Kennedy, C. B. Ripley, Albert Wilcox, Cecil Brown, Geo. W. Smith, J. B. Atherton and W. R. Castle, Ministers Cooper, Damon, Smith and King were all present. At least two or three and perhaps several others were in attendance.

The conference lasted full two hours While not all of those present spoke at length, the talk was at times general and throughout the entire meeting father informat. No vote was taken. No decision was reached at this meeting. It is understood that the Government will decide after giving due consideration to all that was said at the meeting.

Argument in favor of Mr. Dole makthe trip was that he would prove time the treaty or perhaps the resolution was under consideration in Congress. It was expressly stated that he was not to appear before committees to be subjected to questioning and cross examination like an ordinary witness. Neither was it the intention that he should travel about addressing meetings or bodies indiscriminatewould be dignified of course and his company the President. goings and comings from day to day would be left to his own judgment and discretion.

Per contra is was suggested that the going forward of Mr. Dole at this time would interfere with the Legislative session here next month, that from the annexation campaign standpoint. The Bark AMY TURNER will sail he should be on the home ground at all times and that if he undertook the mission at this time it would look too much like following in the wake of the It was conceded that his appearance in the United States and at Washington, would arouse a popular wave of enthusiasm in behalf of annexation, but it was doubted if this would have really commensurate effect upon the Senate or Senate and House.

> Letters were received here Tuesday from Minister Hatch, Lorrin A. Thurston, J. B. Castle and others, in or near Washington. There was not much new to report. So far as the annexationists were concerned they could report the situation practically unchanged and fully as hopeful as at any time since the opening of Congress. They expected the question to come before the Senate without delay and anticipated that the entire question of annexation would be disposed of finally, so far as that President McKinley will give the brief: matter his personal atention and that he will use every effort to secure the ratification of the treaty or failing in that to have the joint resolution pass the two Houses. The President was just entering upon active interest in every endeavor to defeat annexation. It is openly charged and has never been denied that the Los Angeles inbor council anti-annexation resolution was put through a packed meeting it representatives of the trust and the beet sugar combine. These opposing factors are distributing literature and sending "spellbinders" to meetings. At Washington their leaders are working openly against annexation and are us ing all the old stock arguments with a fresh installment of new and specious ones. Assurances are sent to the sifect that the trouble in China will help the annexation cause.

C. A. Brown returned to the Islands Tuesday after an absence of several months. He says that annexation is certain and that it will be consummated by joint resolution to pass both branches of Congress. Mr. Brown said he understood that 58 Senators would vote for the treaty, whereas 60 votes were required for its ratification.

Henry Waterhouse and daughter came home by the Doric. Mr. Water house is more confident than ever that annexation will be brought about by the present Congress.

E. M. Walsh, who is very well known here on account of connection in past years with plantations, but who is now an attorney on the Coast making a combined pleasure and busis ness trip to the Islands. He is an earnest advocate of annexation and is of the firm belief that it will be brought about without delay. It was Mr. Walsh who introduced the annexation resolution which was adopted by the Trans-Minsissippi convention at Salt Lake last summer. Wm. J. Bryan presided at this convention.

At the Park the track to the first quarter, including of course the lower turn, has been placed in better condition than it ever has been before. The money for this was raised by popular subscription. There were signatures for something over $700 and all but about $100 of this has been expended in the work during the past month. Mr. Cunningham handled the purse. It was necessary to make some special implements for the work, but a fine showing has been made with the money. The lower turn has been raised the track is smooth and free from heavy gravel and to the quarter is fast as an ordinary track anywhere. The back stretch is not bad. It has been pretty well preserved from the first. The upper turn and the home stretch are sadly in need of overhauling. Enough work will be done on them before the 17th of March to make them about as good as they ever were But this will be merely a temporary condition. It is desired to make the home stretch and the upper turn as After all had been seated, Minister

On the other hand, the policy of territorial expansion of a nation of 70,000,000 is not to be greatly influenced by an official visit. ## ANNEXATION NOTES.

The most important item of news from Washington is that regarding a protectorate for Hawaii. We have always believed that a protectorate would be the refuge of some American statesmen who were not inclined to favor absolute annexation. The discussion of such a measure is naturally in order. If the American statesmen should refuse to take the final step of annexation, and make a protectorate the ultimatum, we would probably accept it. But a short experience would convince them that the ernment, we are told that Ashfinal step must be taken. It is highly probable that a full disinto disfavor.

TO DISSOLVE INJUNCTION.

Oahu Railway So Moved Circuit Court Yesterday.

The O. R. & L. Co. petitioned the Court yesterday to dissolve the temporary injunction granted the Minister of the Interior to restrain the railway company from continuing with condemnatory proceedings to extend their wharf facilities at the Ews end of the harbor. The defendants ask to be head on the motion at 10 e'clock this morning.

The motion is based on several grounds, among which is included that the temporary injunction restrains the defendant from exercising legal rights conferred upon it under the Act to provide for the promotion of steam railroads on this Island. Another is that under the existing contract between the railroad and the Government the Minister is estopped from claiming, and has lost any rights it might otherwise have to take possession of the property in the controversy.

Attached to, and made a part of the motion are affidavits of B. F. Dillingham and S. M. Ballou, and correspondence relating to the property between the railroad company and the Minister of the Interior, covering a period of

Yes, Scrofuls, if anything, may be called. the advertisement of foul blood. It is the scourge of the world - offensive, painful. debilitating, stubborn and well nigh unendurable. Outward applications do not cure, they only drive the difficulty to new quarters. Emollients may palliste, they cannot abolish the evil. There is but one sure way out, and that is to eliminate the taint from the blood.

There is one remedy that can effect this, and it is the only one that, so far as we know, has almost invariably succeeded even where the system has been poisoned by long years of taint, and the ravages to be repaired are tremendous. That remedy is Hood's Sarsaparills. Read this: "My daughter was afflicted with impure blood. There were running scree all over her body and they caused her much suffering. We tried medicines that were recommended as blood purifiers, but could not see that they did any good. A friend told me about Hood's Sarsaparills and I began giving the girlthis medicine. The result was that she was perfectly cured after taking a few bottles. She has had no symptoms of scrotula sores since that time." MARIETTA M.

For the most part of addresses were of a considerable degree of merit. Several of the speakers were eloquent and effective in speaking of the worth 1898; and attractions and benefits of the Order, of the depth and purity of its principles and of the influence to be wielded by their exercice. A. V. Gear and A. E. Waity were applauded in suggesting that the Knights bend their energies in the direction of raising in Honolulu a worthy Pythlan Castle hall. Ira A. Burgett urged a revival of interest in the Uniform Rank. J. A. Methrten read a sound paper on Brotherhood as exemplified in the practice of the teachings of the Order. J. F. Eckart spoke well on behalf of the supreme lodge and the supreme chancellor. C. B. Gray gave a good account of the work of the retiring officers for the past year. The Lodge has gained in numbers and finances and the reby day, teaching gentleness, charity, generosity, confidence and the greatest respect of the laws of the Divine Mas-

Thos. McTtighe said that a baby was the front part of the existence of a man. All men, even the very greatest had been bables at some time, most of them, in fact all of them, vary early in their careers. Before George Washington could be inaugurated President of the United States he was required to give satisfactory evidence of the MUSIC fact that he had at one time been a baby. Before Caesar crosed the Rubicon he had may times crossed his mother's knees, face downward, thus gaining an excellent training for the work before him. Knight McTighe said he had been entrusted with handling funds for the Lodge and was the first baby knight to get that fine office. He promised at the end of his term to turn the office over to his successor. Gus Murphy's recitation was a new and good one.

During the evening there were songs by Henry Giles and Chas. Ramsey and Geo. Bruns. Mr. Hughes gave a piano golo.

The evening closed with singing Old Lang Syne.

Miss Walsh Meets Members of Aloha Branch.

Short Address to the Assembled Students-Progress of Theosophy-Lectures to be Heard.

There was a very pleasant little gathering of Aloha Branch Theoso phists and friends at Harmony Hall last evening. The occasion was the informal introduction to Honolulu students of "H. P. B." and the adepts and masters to Miss Mary A. Walsh, the noted Pacific Coast Theosophical lec-

In a few felicitous remarks, Miss Walsh was presented to the audience by Prof. A. Marques, president of the Aloha branch. He spoke of the lady's scholarly attainments, of her theosomission to the Islands.

Miss Walsh then took the floor and spoke for about a quarter of an hour, many months rumors were circulated been hung, but there was no reference by this or that boat, without consultto these in the course of her brief ad- ing the Government. All of the time of the lady is now occupied with lec-turing to branches and students and novitlates. It is her life-work. She appears extremely devoted to it. Miss Walsh has of course thought deeply; read widely and studied industriously in the field to which her mind in bent. She has enjoyed the acquaintance ither personally or by correspondence of the great Theosophical teachers and ranks with the most famous of them, For those who assembled last evening Miss Walsh spoke of Theosophy with its motto of "There is no Higher Religion than Truth," as a combination of the best and surest conclusions of religion, science and philosophy. Theosophy had passed along the physical and the intellectual planes and had now reached the spiritual stage. Of late its students and devotees had been enlisted very rapidly and to the ranks had come genuine men and women from all classes. Knowledge of theo-sophy was becoming quite general and its precise tenets frequently were given utterance from pu'pits. It brought to the world a message of unity, of justice, of peace, of universal brotherhood, of love. It told not of emotional love, of indifferent, passive peace. It told of the duty of thought, of the duties and debts and obligations of life, of how to live. The Theosophists did not erect themselves as models, but merely pursued their studies as students and endeavored by their lives and their researches to lessen the burdens and gladden the lives of fellow beings.

in the study had passed away, till it was talked off everywhere and very generally understood. Miss Walsh asked those who were present to assist her by willing with her that her work here should be successful, by being in intense earnestness in their co-operation in the studies they would take up. She suggested the formation or organization of parlor centers where she might enlighten those who cared to listen. The rain had interfered with the first meeting, she said, but the rain was to be blessed because it made things grow and develop, and man, the connecting link between God and the animals needed to have his attention riveted to the idea that part of the essential work of thought was to be applied to growth

The second matter brought before the Council of State yesterday was the case of C. W. Ashford. It was voted that he be allowed to return to the country. There was not an aye and nay vote, but no voices were heard in the negative on the proposition. Two or three members failed to vote.

C. W. Ashford was not pardoned for the reason that he was not under conphical career and work and of the viction. England Will Make No Scaling Agree P. ment.

LONDON, December 27.-Lord Salisbury, the Premier, has written to the United States Embassador Hay in re-Onited States Embassator Ray in 16-sponse to America's latest proposal in the Behring sea controversy, that Great Brit-ain would enter into an agreement with the United States, Russia and Japan to the United States, Russia and Japan westop sealing.

Great Britain declines to enter into such an agreement. Lord Salisbury says in substance that he had communicated with the Canadian Government, which has the foremost interest in the sealing question, and that Canada is unwilling to become a sealing to be and that Canada is unwilling to become a party to such arrangement as is proposed by the United States. Therefore, England, continues Lord Salisbury, whose interest is but slight, would not be justified in acceding to the proposals.

Lord Salisbury's answer emphasizes the policy of England not to interfere in Canada's foreign relations.

THE LIGHT THAT CAST NO SHADOW.

Curious stories are told about the powers possessed by certain natives of India, who live up among the Himalaya Mountains. These old men, it is said, have devoted scores of years to the study of natural laws and forces, which the rest of the world knows nothing about. Lately a German pro-fessor visited the "adepts," as these queer Hindus are called, for the purpose of finding out the secret of their remarkable performances. They treat ed him rather scurvily, but interested him all the same. One day the profes sor wanted to examine some ancient Sanskrit manuscripts. An adept went with him to a cave wherein the books were kept. The place was dark as the bottom of a well. "I can't see to read here," said the visitor. "Then we will have some light," was "It was thought best to take the you can imagine the size of Old Kriss." ened the cave. He could not tell whence it came, but he noticed that it had one strange quality—it cast not the slightest shadow. This a story hard to believe, yet its There is quite a joke out on three of truth is affirmed by a man of vast

> A man who has been ill for years and failed to find a cure, is sceptical his experience? Take an example:

"In the spring of 1888," writes our correspondent, "I fell into a low, weak and languid state. I felt low-spirited and out of sorts. At first my stomach was deranged, my appetite poor, and after eating I had pain and weight at the Harry Wilder and Al Moore yester- chest. I was much troubled with wind, me. At last I heard of Mother Seigel's Syrup, and procured a supply. After I had taken only a few doses I found reall nervousness left me. Although l had no reason at first to feel any confidence in this medicine, never having used it or seen it used, I now gladly admit its value, and its power over disease. Since my recovery, for which I thank Mother Seigel's Curative Syrup. spirits. In the interests of suffering humanity I deem it a duty to send you this testimony. (Signed) D. GRIF-FITHS, tailor and outfitter, 151 Hockley Hill, Birmingham, June 8, 1893."

There is a deal of difference between Mr. Griffith's candid letter and the story about the light that cast no shadow. The latter may be true enough, but it cannot be verified without more trouble than it is worth. On the other hand we have a trustworthy witness, who will answer letters of inquiry, and can be found at his address, Finally, there is nothing mystic or maxical about Mother Selgel's Curative Syrup. It acts on the theory that most atiments are but symptoms, forms, or phases of that universal disease-indigestion and dyspepsia; it cures that, and throws the light of health and haptwo doese of this remedy never fails Where and poin has cast such dark and jacket, Anderson by name, was in the imp doses of this remain hour, there is a control of the interpretation o First and depicts.
